There are three problems that going to be discussed in this thesis those are : (1) What are the teacher's strategies in teaching vocabulary at the eleventh grade students of SMA N 1 Banyumas Pringsewu, (2) Why does the teacher apply the strategy teaching vocabulary at the eleventh grade students of SMA N 1 Banyumas Pringsewu, and (3) What are the teacher's problems in teaching English vocabulary at the eleventh grade students of SMA N 1 Banyumas Pringsewu.

In this study, the writer used a qualitative approach with descriptive research design to address these problems. In collecting the data, the writer used some techniques, namely (1) observation, (2) interview, and (3) documentation. In analyzing the data, the writer used some techniques namely: (1) data collecting, (2) data reduction, (3) data display, and (4) conclusion/verification. The subject in this study was an English teacher

Based on the analysis of an interview. The writer found the strategies used by the teacher were multiple meaning, game and memorization. Using multiple meaning the students can get one more meaning of vocabulary. While the game play, the students feel enjoy in studying vocabulary. And then memorizing is the ease understanding the English language. So, the strategies used teaching English vocabulary in teaching at the eleventh grade of SMA N 1 Banyumas Pringsewu. But in fact, the students still find it difficult. Then it is suggested that when a teacher English vocabulary, she or he must use appropriate teachers strategies to improve student's vocabulary mastery.

INTRODUCTION

A. Background of the Problem

Learning English is becoming important thing for people to be more competitive in all aspect of life such as education, technology, social, and culture. As an internasional language, English has gained its popularity all over the world including Indonesia. The Indonesia goverment has an knowledge the importance of English by putting is into the education. English becomes in one of compulsory subject at many schools in Indonesia. The National Education Department decided the Indonesia students must have the competence of understanding and exprassing information, ideas, feeling, and developing science, technology, and culture in English.<sup>2</sup>

Language is not only the principle medium that human beings use to communicate with each other but also it is as the tool that links people together and binds them it their culture. To understand our humanity, all of the human being in this world should understand the language that makes them human. The study of language is a very challenging, therefore the study of language have to be done by all human being.

The acquisition of foreign language especially English as an international language has become more important in facing the globalization era in which the nature is the mobility of interaction among some countries to do the cooperation in some fields such as communication, politics, diplomacy, international trade and industry, education science and technology. Indonesia, that is located in a strategy area, will get a strong effect of this phenomenon. Ordinary people especially the old generations might not feel the direct effect caused by the globalization era. However, the young learners as the next generations have to be ready in facing the effect of the globalization era.

English is an universal language that is used by almost developing countries in the world. As a foreign language, English is not easy to learn because there are four language skills must be mastered by the students, those the; listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

Beside the students must be mastery in four skill, the students also have to learn about grammar, spelling, vocabulary and pronunciation that are taught to support the development of the four language skills. Each skill is related to each other, so the students are demand to learn the four skills well in other they may use the skills efficiently and accurately. These skills are impossible to master well if the students do not have good vocabulary mastery. It means that it is the essential aspect in learning English. “Without grammar very little can be covey, without vocabulary nothing can be convey”. This is how the linguist David Wilkins summed up the importance of vocabulary learning.<sup>3</sup>

It is one of the vital elements in constructing meaningful communication. It can not be imagined how students can speak and write well if they do not possess the words need to convey their ideas and feelings. Therefore, this purpose clarifies that vocabulary is need in the interaction and is he biggest role in learning English as a foreign language. The linguists David Wilkins summed up, “Without grammar very little can be conveyed, without vocabulary nothing can be conveyed”<sup>4</sup>

The importance of learning English could be seen from the fact that most scientific books are written in English and the students are supposed to comprehend those books. According to English curriculum, English teaching covers four skill, namely reading, listening, speaking and writing. The four skills are support by the learning of language elements. They are structure, vocabulary, pronunciation and spelling. Therefore, vocabulary is one of the important language elements the students should master. Vocabulary includes collections of words. The words are known not only as individual words, but also as group of words that have meaning.<sup>5</sup>

Based on the statement above, vocabulary is very important because it is an endless activity. It needs continuity in learning. In learning vocabulary does not merely mean memorizing but recognizing the meaning to more understand in a context. Most students believe that word-to-word translation is enough to understand in English class but in fact it is more complicated than that because of the factors that influence in mastering vocabulary.

The strategy or teaching method is a big role in students' mastery of instructional material including vocabulary. The accuracy of method election in language teaching including the most important matter to help the students getting better achievement. According to Sanusi Via Iskandar Wassid stated that, "Teaching process aimed at raising human quality as intact pervade cognitive-intellectual dimension, skill and others value"<sup>6</sup>.

If the teacher is apply the appropriate and interest strategy or method the student would stimulate to learn more on it. If we try to notice, things that interest us usually stay in our head longer than things that who found boring. Language teachers, therefore, should be considerable can again a great success in their vocabulary learning. The student will find it useful and interesting by using appropriate technique or suitable method to learn new vocabulary base on their characteristics.

Make students master in English vocabulary depends on teacher how to give motivation to the students while teaching and the most important thing is the strategy of teaching which is use by the teacher in taught English vocabulary. Having more vocabulary is good for the students in process understanding learning English.

Having a limit vocabulary is also a barrier that precludes student from learning a foregn language. When they do not know how to enrich their vocabulary, for example, they often gradually lose interest in learning. Kwelju's study state that being competent in four skill (speaking, listening, reading and writing) students should be good in vocabulary.<sup>7</sup> It can be conclude that vocabulary is the important part of language learning.

REVIEW OF RELATED LITERATURE

A. The Concept of Teaching English as a Foreign Language

The role of English is considered as a second language or a foreign language in each country all over the world. As a second language, English has an essential role in national and social life through communication aspect. Meanwhile, as a foreign language, English is taught in schools and courses. It does not play an essential role in national or social life. However, the role of English is great. Mostly we find it in developing country.<sup>12</sup>

The role of teaching English as a foreign language (TEFL) is about conveying information to students in an interesting way and communicating through the sense of English language. Giving the students foreign language competence by using more several ways to read literature, to read technical work, to listen the radio, to understand the dialogue and the movie use of the language for communication. It is clear that teaching a foreign language has an important role and has the same position with another teaching subject in order to reach the objective of language teaching.

B. The Concept of Vocabulary

1. Definition of Vocabulary

Vocabulary refers to the words we must know to communicate effectively. Pieter argues that vocabulary is one of the components of language and that no language exists without words. Words are signs or symbols for ideas. They are the means by which people exchange their thoughts. The more words we learn, the more ideas we should have so we can communicate the ideas more effectively.<sup>13</sup>

From the definitions above, it can be seen that vocabulary is a list or a set of words for a particular language that have meaning and it can be used for communication. Vocabulary is knowledge of words and words have meanings.

However, vocabulary is more complex than this definition suggests. First, words come in two forms: oral and print. Oral vocabulary includes those words that we recognize and use in listening and speaking. Print vocabulary includes those words that we recognize and use in reading and writing. Second, word knowledge also comes in two forms, receptive and productive.

According to Fauziati "Vocabulary is a central to language and of critical importance of typical language learner".<sup>14</sup>

2. Types of vocabulary

Writer often refer to four type of vocabulary, they are:

- a. Listening vocabulary the words we need to know to understand what we hear.
- b. Speaking vocabulary the words we use when we speak.
- c. Reading vocabulary the words we need to know to understand what we read.
- d. Writing vocabulary the words we use in writing.

Besides, Armbruster, Lehr, and Osborn state that types of words are:

- a. Important words: Words that are important for understanding the concepts.
- b. Useful words: Words those students are likely to see and use again.
- c. Difficult words: Words with multiple meaning or idiomatic expressions.<sup>15</sup>

3. The Importance of Vocabulary

This is how the linguist David Wilkins described the importance of vocabulary as qouted by Tornbury. It means that someone can speak English although less in grammar during the key words is easy to be understood. In the other side, someone can not say something if they never know vocabulary, means that they can not communicate wel. Other opinion, Rivers in Davit Nunan argued that the of an adequate vocabulary is essential for successful second language use because without extential vocabulary, we will be unable to use the structures and function we may have learner for comprehensible communication. Lewis argues that vocabulary should be at the center of language teaching because language consists of grammatical lexis, not lexicalized grammar.<sup>16</sup>

(http://www.prel.org/products/re\_ES0419.htm accessed on March 10, 2015)

4. Kind of vocabulary

According to standard competence and basic competence in syllabus that used in senior high school, kind of vocabulary are vocabulary about important word, useful word, and difficult word that arranged in a sentence and expressions that included in speaking, writing, listening and reading material. In addition material for eleventh grade students of SMA NU Palangka Raya are vocabulary about news reader and master ceremony in fifth semester. In the second semester the addition material is about belles letters such as song, poetry, film, and short story.

According to Dwi Wandono, vocabulary can divided in to active vocabulary and passive vocabulary. Active vocabulary is vocabulary actually used, while passive vocabulary is vocabulary understood.<sup>17</sup>

Kind of vocabulary in active and passive and passive form have own function. They are usually named as words classification or the eight part of speech. These are the basic of introduction of vocabulary. According to Hayanto and Hariyono, the eight parts of speech are;<sup>18</sup>Noun, Adjective, Verb, Pronoun, Adverb, Preposition, Conjunction, interjection.

a. Noun

Noun are words such as name of person, place, animals, things, feelings, ideas, qualives and activities. Noun in the English grammar consist some types are:

1) Concrete noun. Concrete noun is something we can see touch, handle and taste by the five senses. Example: Table, car, gold, iron, etc. Concrete noun itself can divide in to four are:

D. The Teacher's Strategies in Teaching Vocabulary

1. Definition Teaching vocabulary strategies

When language develops from language-rich classrooms, vocabulary-rich conversation, and experiences to build prior knowledge. The status of vocabulary within the curriculum and the attitude of foreign language teachers toward vocabulary instruction have varied considerably over the years.

However, for teachers of upper elementary and secondary school students, vocabulary usually means the “hard” words that students encounter in content area textbook and literature selections. Vocabulary as knowledge of words and word meaning in both oral and print language and in productive and receptive forms.<sup>19</sup>

In education, teachers facilitate student's learning, often in a school or academy or perhaps in another environment such as outdoors. The teaching is a basic component of the teacher competences. Every teacher must be able to teach and master the teaching activity in front of the student. Sanusi via Iskandarwassid states that ” Teaching process aimed at raising human quality as intact pervade cognitive-intellectual dimension, skill and others values”.<sup>20</sup>

Other source from Dequely and Gazali via Slameto stated that, “Teaching is inculcating the knowledge to everyone with the briefest and the priciest ways or method”<sup>21</sup>

In addition, in order to reach the instruction purposes above, the teaching process must belong to the effective and interisting strategies. The strategies are the soul of the teaching activities. Seels and Richey via Syarifudding and Nasution state that, “instructional strategy are specifications for selecting and sequencing events and activities within a lesson.”<sup>22</sup> Gegne & Briggs state that “ Instuction ia a set of event which affects learners in such a way that learning is facilitated”<sup>23</sup>.

2. Kinds of Teaching Vocabulary Strategy

In other word strategy refers to a plan of action designed to achieve a particular goal. Related to the teaching learning strategy, definition of strategy is general pattern of teacher and student activity in realization teaching learning activity to get the purpose. Teaching and learning strategy offers a synthesis of the most effective ways to facilitate and enchance teaching and learning. In the present study the researcher will focus on describing teacher strategy in teaching and improving vocabulary.

Specifically, Fauziati states that more effective strategies to teach vocabulary are:

a. Word clustering. Word clustering is a type of activity in which students can make connection between new and known items. The grouping of word may include clusters of topically related lexical items such as elections which includes political parties, campaign ballot box, taking a poll, polling place, conventions, taking a straw vote, inaugural address etc.

b. Multiple meaning. A word meaning activity. It is a type of activity that develops students' awareness of words that may have more than one meaning.

c. Vocabulary expansion. It is a certain activity to help students expand the vocabulary use. The teacher can put a useful but unfamiliar word on the wall. He gives definition to the word, then the students scan in the reading passage.

d. Word part exercise. It is a particular activity which helps the students derive meaning from words analysis. The teacher directs the students to find word on the word wall that have identifiable.

e. Game. Game is one of activities which can help to create dynamic motivating classes. The reason is that learning takes place when the students, in relaxed atmosphere, participate in activities that require than to use what they have been drilled on.<sup>24</sup>

She also stated about the vocabulary such as:

a. Semantic Networks

A semantic network consist of word which share semantic features or semantic components. A componential analysis can show what relates and differentiates members of a particular semantic network.

b. Memorization

Memory is also very important in the development of a second language, and it is vocabulary which requires more generous treatment for memorization compared with other aspects of second language development.

c. Context

Vocabulary can be managed through inferring word meaning from contexts, since guessing word meaning from its context is quite possible.

d. Definition Clause

They are the direct statements of the meaning of a term or vocabulary.

There are illustration clause and contrast clause.

e. The word well approach

It utilized a set of six words, filled well panels, each with a different background color corresponding to a different curriculum objective. There can be phonic elements, word from classes, grammatical forms, or spelling patterns.

The scientific study on vocabulary instruction reveals that most vocabulary is learned directly and some vocabulary must be taught directly. The students at eleventh grade of SMA N 1 Banyumas Pringsewu used direct vocabulary learning such as:

a. Specific word instruction

Specific word instruction, or teaching individual words, can deepen students' knowledge of word meaning. In-depth knowledge of word meaning can help students understand what they are hearing or reading. It also can help them use word accurately in speaking and writing.

b. Extended instruction that promotes active engagement with vocabulary improves word learning.

c. Children learn words best when they are provided with instruction over an extended period of time and when instruction has them work actively with the words. The more students use new words and the more they use them in different contexts, the more likely they are to learn the words.

d. Repeated exposure to vocabulary in many contexts aids word learning

Students learn new words better when they encounter them often and in various contexts. The more children see, hear, and work specific words, the better they seem to learn them. When teachers provide extended instruction that promotes active engagement, they give student repeated exposure to new words.

3. Problem in Teaching Vocabulary

The students will find some common problem when learn about vocabulary are new word, David Ridell mentions such as:<sup>25</sup>

a. Meaning

- 1) A word may have more than one meaning
- 2) First language (L1) interference such as “a false friends” words with a similar appearance or sound to words in their L1 but with different meaning.
- 3) The meaning can be interpreted in different meaning.
- 4) A students may understand the meaning of a word, but not the approach context in which to use it.

b. Form

- 1) The spelling may be very different from the sound.

<sup>25</sup> David Riddell, Teaching English as a Foreign Language, London: Hodder Headline Ltd, 2003, p. 58-59

- 2) Student may be competent speakers of the language but poor writers.
- 3) A word may be more than one part of speech.
- 4) Some words are irregular.
- 5) Different varieties of English have different spellings.
- 6) Spelling patterns are not obvious.

c. Pronunciation

- 1) The sound may not correspond to the spelling
- 2) Students may have difficulty knowing how many syllables the word is broken up into.
- 3) It is hard to know which syllable is stressed.
- 4) A speaker of a particular language might have difficulty with certain sounds.
- 5) Some words with different spelling and meaning are pronounced the same.

4. Strategy and Method

Teaching and learning strategies are selected ways to deliver learning materials in teaching environment particular, which include the nature, scope and sequence of activities that can provide learning experience to students. Teaching and learning strategies are not limited to the procedure of activities, but also included material or a teaching packed. Teaching and learning strategy consist of all components of teaching materials and prosedure which will be used to help students achieve specific learning goals in other words. Teaching and learning strategies is also the choise if exercises that match a particular destination will be achieved. Each behavior to be laerned should be practiced. Since every material and teaching purposes different from each other, so these activities that must be practice by students require different requirements.<sup>26</sup>

5. Teaching

Teaching is not easy job for the teacher. Theacher"s magnificence will be seen in good attitude of the students. In class, teacher will face in group of the students by the all of their differences and similarities. The varieties of the students creative, stand alone and responsible to their action.

Teaching is guiding and and facilitating learning, enabling the learner to learn, setting the condition for learning.<sup>27</sup> Teaching is showing or helping someone to learn how to something, providing with knowledge, causing to know or understand as guiding and facilitating, the teachers must be able to guide the students to do something or to learn and they must know the suitable condition to learn. The teacher English vocabulary teaching stages based on response theory are:

a. Preparing

In this stage, the teacher makes and submits question that must be answered by the students appropriate with matter that has been taught.

6. Characteristic of Teaching Vocabulary Strategies

A number of ways of conceptualizing strategies in language teaching have been made. Various attempts have also been made to explore more systematically the relationship between theory and practice within a method. A knowledge of methods is part of the knowledge base of teaching. Method serve as foil for reflection that can aid teachers in bringing to conscious awareness the thinking that underlies their action.

Every teacher and students are able to use several strategies or method to master the foreign language, espencially vocabulary. Everthough every strategies has different principle and techniques but every strategy must be the seven characteristics such as:

a. Teaching language strategies refer to the effective procedures and technique s to master the langauage.

b. Some of teaching language strategies are able to be abserved but some of them are not.

c. Teaching language strategies oriented toward the problem in the learning.<sup>28</sup>

d. Teaching language strategies has big contribution to the successful of the learner.

e. Teaching language strategies are able to be repeated.

f. Teaching language strategies are able to be change and improved

g. Teaching language strategies are able to be combined among them.

7. Teaching Vocabulary Strategy

This is relatively simple strategy according to Moore and Moore for teaching word meaning and generating considerable class discussion.<sup>29</sup>

a. Teacher chooses six to eight words from the text that may pose difficult for students. These words are usually key concepts in the text.

b. Next, the teacher choose four to six words that students are more likely to know something about.

c. The list of ten twelve words is put on the chalk board or overhead projector. The teacher provides brief definitions as needs

d. Students are challenged to devise sentence that contain two or more words from the list.

<sup>29</sup> Hesti Supriati, Teaching Strategies by English Teacher's in Teaching Vocabulay at the Eleventh Grade Students of Language Program in MAN Model Palangka Raya, op.cit, p. 25

e. All sentences that students come up with, both accurate and inaccurate are listed and discussed.

f. Students now read the selection.

g. After reading , revisit the possible sentence and discuss whether they could be true based on the passage or how they could be modified to true.

Vocabulary activities can easily start off a pre-reading lesson. When it comes to using vocabulary activities, a pre-reading lesson should contain some if not all, of the new vocabulary. Some ideas include: starting with a brainstorm, comic, a quotation, a dialogue or a sentence as lead-in. When a text may have too many challenging or difficult words, a teacher may want to employ a variety of techniques such as translation, picture matching, or explaining the new vocabulary in context. Pre-teaching vocabulary helps:

a. Learners focus on the subject of the text.

b. Teachers predict the content of the text using the target vocabulary.

This pre-reading section of the lesson should take approximately ten minutes. Then, when the text is being read to the students, the teacher has the chance to either confirm the students' predictions, or, to go straight to the main reading task depending on what was previously done.<sup>30</sup>

F. Difference of Method, Approach, strategy and technique

1. A method is the principal realization of an approach. The originators of a method have arrived at decisions about types of activities, roles of teachers and learners, the kinds of material which will be helpful, and some model of syllabus organization. Methods include various procedures and techniques as part of their standard fare.

4. Technique a common technique when using video material is called „silent viewing“. This is where the teacher plays the video with no sound. Silent viewing is a single activity rather than a sequence, and such is a technique rather than a whole procedure.<sup>33</sup>

G. Frame of Thinking

Having a limit words or vocabularies is also disturb the learners in learning a foreign language in communication, their interesting in learning will be losed. Learning a foreign language will be successful by supporting enough vocabulary. Foreign langauge learners should fully understand that they need vocabulary because it permeates everything they do in English. In learning English, the students need more vocabulary to understand. To understand the English, the advisors (teacher) have to know the best strategies of teaching vocabulary. Based on the explanation above, the writer discussed about the teacher strategies in teaching vocabulary, where the purpose is to describe teacher`s strategies of learning vocabulary. The writer observed for the teaching vocabulary process and analized.
